

UPCOMING SPEAKERS SCHEDULE

April 18th – Keith Steiniger of Proforma Marketing will host us AT HIS LOCATION. Always fun and informative. Another great off-site meeting. Don't miss it!

April 25th – Zach Bovard of Tight Solutions will discuss his top down approach to solving company's technology problems and how they can leverage those to become more successful at the Double Tree Hotel.

If Michelangelo Were Alive Today...

Did Michelangelo ever paint outdoors? Does it really matter? No, because he would not probably be painting your home. But Kevin Turner of Kevin Turner Painting is the Michelangelo of Kansas City.

You see, for 33 years now, Kevin has been honing his skills and leaving his mark on homes throughout KC. He professes the fact that this will be "The Best Paint Job Your House Will Ever Have!" And it's true – just ask any of his hundreds of satisfied clients. So far, he has graced his talents on several Prospectors homes, painting on average about 100 houses in a season. His real motto is "Be early, prepared, clean, and organized."

Kevin likes speed and sports and enjoys making friends and money at the same time. Though, he says "People are more important to him than money."

Kevin promises to exceed your expectations and go beyond what you would expect of painters. Thanks Kevin for all you have done and will continue to bring to the Prospectors family.

A tree is so symbolic of life in general. Starting from a mere seed, it grows into a tall and mighty structure, well grounded by its roots, and spreading its arms towards the heavens.

No one person takes on more about the understanding of this group of plants on this Earth than Felicio (Phil) Giordano of Grade A Tree Service.

Just like Kevin Turner, Phil has been in business himself for nearly 33 years, giving honest, straightforward advise on taking care of one of your home's most valuable possessions – your trees.

Grade A does everything from trimming and removing dead limbs to topping, thinning, and even stump removal. And Phil is even adept at diagnosing your tree if it is suffering from disease or not.

Why wait for strong spring storms? Or a hard winter? Get Phil and his crew out in order to avoid having to plead during emergencies. So don't forget – make the call to Grade A Tree today!!!
