¿Puede leer y entender esto? If not, you might need to know Bruce Knapp !!

Ever been in a restaurant and heard someone speaking another language? Or have you been in an emergency involving another party that does not speak English? Do you work in a hospital with foreign speaking patients? What to do?

The solution is knowing about Bruce Knapp's company Alpha Omega of KC.

Bruce has owned his business for nearly 10 years now, and loves the opportunity to service those needing both interpreting and translating. Headquartered in the Kansas City area, they have more than 9 years of experience in the midwestern United States. Alpha & Omega offers language services 24 hours a day, seven days a week. They supply linguistic services to the Kansas City metropolitan area at a moment's notice.

Their highly qualified, native-speaking interpreters and translators will reflect the cultural nuances of your clients' native language. They have been field-trained, tested and certified to provide culturally correct interpretation and translation. Many of their interpreters and translators also hold advanced degrees in a variety of disciplines.

Bruce says the interpreter business is much like being a pimp – they are there to make people happy.

And they deal with several issues that are not cut and dry dealing with illegal family members and predicaments they get into.

Bruce prides his company on the face-to-face contact they have with their clients, making translation move smoother.

We are so lucky to have Bruce as a member. And when that need arises, you will know who to turn to. Thanks Bruce for all your efforts and involvement with PBC..
