The Great and Wonderful World of Carpet, Flooring, Tile, Laminates, Granite, and Marble.

I don't know about you, but most of us were "floored" last week, having to come from "The Emerald City" to the "Granite City", and visiting the Great and Powerful Oz, better known as Rick Wolverton of Advanced Interiors. It is always a treat to make our way to see the best and brightest Rick has to offer.

You feel it as soon as you enter his location, occupied by several businesses. But the feel of the tile and granite, or the fresh style of today's kitchens is starkly evident there.

Rick's past includes teaching, coaching, and chemicals. His brother's entry into the carpeting biz is what drove Rick to join him for awhile. But you can't keep a tiger caged too long. Advanced Interiors concentrates on carpeting, hardwood floors, laminates and tile. They are not high pressure sales oriented, but they make sure their clients know what is best for them. They educate them, give them options so they know what they are getting.

They are working with several carpet mills to provide the best selection. Rick stated that Smartstrand by Mohawk was not a great value, and Stainmaster doesn't make a huge difference either.

His hardwoods start around $0.75 per sq. foot, and have at least 12 different finishes. If you have existing hardwood flooring, they can also hand scrape your existing floors and refinish them to a beautiful shine.

Porcelain tile is harder and moisture resistant, and is used in showers, design work, and benches. His best suggestion to treat yourself to a luxury is having heated bathroom floors (these cost approx. $1500).

Vinyl is sometimes recommended over tile and hardwoods.

Laminates like Pergo have come and gone. They really were not all they said they were.

And if you are looking for granite for a kitchen or bath,
