

It's Now OK To Use Technology During Meetings, But Don't Leave Dick Out

Seems that Dick Allen does not realize that he can use his mobile device to keep up on business or update his Facebook page, as Chris Pickering checked on the legal ramifications of Rick Wolverton's speech, and Keith Steiniger plotted his latest bicycle ride with his Team in Training. Go ahead – multi-task. Text and email as you listen to your fellow Prospectors, and get twice as much done. See more on Page 2...

Sirna Brothers Discover Long Lost Brother on Facebook Site

Ciao! That's what Rich and Bill Sirna have been shouting since finding out they have found a brother missing since birth, Vinnie "Shmirna" Sirna (see below), who lives in Florence, Italy. "Facebook brings families back together after nearly 40 years."

Rich says. Now it's like having The Three Stooges back again! Thank God they are related. When he comes to visit the US for the first time, their relationship will keep them from getting wacked. Be sure to learn more on Page 2.....

The Secret's Out – Jeff Morgan Doesn't Know Shit About His Business.....

For all you "septics" out there, it's not like it sounds. Jeff Morgan of Morgan Miller Plumbing knows plumbing but doesn't want to deal with the crap – literally. That's why he's hired many without scent glands, and trained skunks to work underground because they don't mind it. Now that's from a guy that actually does know his shit. See page 2 for more .....

Fake Dentist Rooted Out

Too bad for Dr. Bert Oettmeier's newest associate, Tyler Webb, DDS, who got caught in a "Smile Triangle". And just as he started his legitimate business, he realized he could double his earnings fast, he worked after hours, giving many bright smiles to those in need, and keeping the dough for himself.

Dentists are incapable of asking questions that require a simple yes or no answer. We've all been to the dentist several times – we know the drill. So, be kind to your dentist because he has fillings too. Go to Page 2 for more.....

McDonald's Franchise Awarded to Wellness Guru

More healthy menu choices is what persuaded Sean Felton of Felton Chiropractic to become McDonald's 4,567th franchisee. 'I decided that sacrificing a little health makes for a better bottom line, so move over organic – here comes our McChicken wrap sandwiches'. Continued on Page 2.....

Found Out Trips To Mexico Are Deductible

Been trying to get a hold of Kyle Douglas lately? You might not have been able to because it seems he has been away from town and his business a lot . Oh yea, he got married and all, but Jim Bell says his travels to Mexico are all legit because Kyle tells him he is "looking for tons of dirt to ship back to KC.", and that according to the IRS, is perfectly legal. He's found soil that makes grass grow three times faster than dirt here, thus making his crews have to cut it more, and making lots of profit for his company. See Page 2 to find out more...

New Dance Studio To Open In Olathe Catering To Short Duration Lessons

Seems that Kevin York has found a great new business teaching the latest dance steps to the hot and lonely ladies of Johnson County. They have gotten used to his new method of teaching. Kevin tells his gals only after a short time with them – "I'm done dancing with you. Send me another gal." as he did with one of his students, Jennifer Shelton of Roeland Park, KS. And that's the way it was.... See more on Page 2...

Butterball Turkey Hires Wolverton New Regional Taste Tester

Thanksgiving is 7 months away, and Butterball is wasting no time getting ready. They are expanding their product line, and adding gravy to the mix. Who better to hire as their regional taste tester than Rick Wolverton. Experienced with a fine tuned palette and always first in line, Rick faces the challenge with excitement. "To Hell with Team in Training. This is my true calling. Brown, yellow, white or cream gravy – don't matter to me." (Continued on Page 2).....

HAPPY APRIL FOOL'S DAY !!!

Another year passes, and you all are such good sports. A special Thanks goes out to those thick skinned friends and fellow Prospectors:- Chris Pickering, Keith Steiniger, Dick Allen, Rich and Bill Sirna, Jeff Morgan, Bert Oettmeier, Tyler Webb, Sean Felton, Kyle Douglas, Jim Bell, Kevin York, Jennifer Shelton, and last but not least, Rick Wolverton.
Hope all your April Fool's Days were filled with fun and surprises!

One Man's Trash Is Another Man's Treasure!

Even in 2013, the old expression that "One Man's Junk is Another Man's treasure." still applies. And who knows this better than Rich Sirna of Sirna Bros. Hauling. Rich and his brother, Bill, have targeted a great niche. As our society ages, we will soon need their services – finding a new home for all your stuff!

They do everything from garage clean-outs for full house estate settlements. Their goal is to find a home for whatever they take away and prevent it from ending in a landfill. They donate as many items as possible to those not-for-profits that need them most. Then they also have some vendors that help them source out items for sale, always keeping those in need first and foremost. Places like the Battered Women's Shelter, where furniture and clothes are regular donations.

They currently have a Red Truck Special that gets you the use of them and their truck for $100, taking 2 large items that you have unhooked or unplugged, and are ready to move. They also like demolishing stuff! They knock it down, take it out, and haul it to a special place, like demoing a bathroom. At the end of the day, you never know they were there.

They pack it tight and high, as to make the most out of the space they have to sell. These are guys you can trust as long as the day is long, and they work hard to accomplish their goals. Thanks to Rich for bringing us into the new revolution in trash and debris removal.
