So tell us about your beautiful home. Is it everything you’ve ever dreamed of living in? Do you have all the latest conveniences? How about your color schemes? Is your furniture a tad worn? Could you use a few new chairs? Fresh accessories?

Maybe it’s time to think about bringing your style into the 21st century. It’s time to consider redesigning your house to make it “your home” again. But where to start? What choices do I have? Who knows the latest trends and can work within a budget I have?

Your dream home is really not a dream any more, when you have Janine Terstriep of The Decorative Touch as your interior design expert.

Janine never intended on becoming an interior designer, but she took a path of growth and expertise that has combined to lead her in that direction. She is a hard-working entrepreneur, much like her siblings, each successful in their own right. She began learning how to deal with the public working in women’s retail fashion. In college, she received a degree in elementary education, but also took a course or two learning about what people needed in their homes. This alone is what sparked her interest in design.

It was by chance that she was introduced to Patti and Kevin York. They became close friends and also Patti became a bit of a mentor teaching Janine much about today’s business acumen.

She has worked for several smaller companies before stepping out on her own. There were life changes that helped make her rethink her life. It was time. As she gained experience, she learned she wanted to work with home builders – she really wanted a piece of their business. She continued networking, getting great referrals from the work she initially did for some of the best builders in the area. From that point on, she never really looked back!

You need fresh new ideas to help turn your house into a home you’ll love!!

She has developed strong relationships with some of the best and smartest builders in the business. Not only does she do projects here in Metro Kansas City, but she had the luxury of being referred to others in cities around the country because of her excellent reputation.

At one point in her business cycle, she had 7 designers working for her, and she found herself juggling so many balls at once. It was almost too overwhelming. So she took and downsized to the showroom / studio she occupies now, and she says she truly “loves her new life.” She now can do what she wants when she wants to. If Janine wants to golf on Friday afternoon, it’s scheduled and done.

In her case, seeing is believing. She had hundreds of examples of what a project looked like before she had a go at it, and then the finished product and how gorgeous it turned out to be. She does so much. From design consultations, draperies and window treatments, wall coverings, furniture, accessories (pillows, that is), bedding, rugs, and so much more. From one room to an entire home, Janine is there to walk you through the process one step at a time.

Whether you need help with minor updating, large-scale remodeling, or new construction, you are in the right hands. She can literally take care of almost anything you may need done to your home.

She has gotten to know her clients extremely well. She looks for what drives them as a family. Do they need a fresh change in their living environment? Are they ready to open up and commit to this project? Are they looking to downsize or upsize?

OK, not many of us can claim this, but Janine is blessed. She truly loves her life and what she’s doing. And you can hear it in her voice. In her laugh. And see it in her smile.

So no matter what size home you have, where you live, or what tastes in design you have, not to worry! You can still see Janine’s results come through in every job she commits to. She is a trooper.

Janine, thanks for serving this club on its Board, for making us take a different look at where and how we live, and for a smile when you see any Prospectors and anyone for that matter. Let’s make it “home” for the Holidays.
