You get up in the morning, shower and shave, then head to the closet to pick out your attire for the day. There you stand — staring at the same old ratty shirts, tattered slacks, and if your wife said “Honey, let’s go out on the town this weekend”, you may not even have a sports coat to look your best.

Yes, you’re worried, But you don't have to be. Your answer is luckily just a phone call away. What if you had someone that could help update YOUR wardrobe, make your life so much simpler, and give you choices that combine what you have now with some fresh new looks, that would fit you to a tee, and make you look marvelous! Wouldn’t that be refreshing?

It CAN happen! How you ask? Easy – just let Mike Kopplin of Kopplin Wardrobe Management take you by the hand and show you how easy it could be.

Having paid his dues in his younger years, Mike hit the pavement learning his people skills selling books door to door, even typwriters and copiers before entering the clothing business in a management position. This was in the Northwest US, but eventually it brought him to Knasas City, where he knew his dream was to own his own business. He had the resources ready to start, the needed contacts in the industry. And Kopplin Wardrobe Management was born.

He sells everything from blue jeans to tuxedos, all without having a retail footprint. He is basically an on-call salesman that comes to serve your needs. He takes a look at what you have, what you like, what style you lean towards (if any). It does not take long for his creative juices to flow, and within several days, he has solutions to your clothing fashion whoas.

He works with anyone and everyone, and has clients not just in Metro KC, but all across the US in nearly 10 states.

His strength is in customization. Not just fit, but style as well. You can now have a shirt made to fit your body if you are portly or athletic, and it comes with more features to choose from – infinite fabrics, collar, buttons, cuffs, trim, slim or full cut. And suits or sport jackets hail the same selection. Custom blue jeans guaranteed to fit. He showed us a brand new suit made of a linen blend that seems to discourage wrinkling and creasing, and travels very well.

He has great special packages he touts, like custom suits, shirts, and ties that together give you literally dozens of combinations of choices you can wear.

He has had clients referred to him in professions such as financial wholesalers, salesmen, corporate execs, real estate, police officers, barbers, and bankers. The list goes on. He really can serve you if you are a buff athlete, a tall or short guy, you have a hard time finding clothes that fit RIGHT! Don't fret any more – your problems are solved.

Guys, time to sit down and have a talk with Mike and let him show you what he can do to take the hassle out of looking great again. (And ladies, maybe you can get your guy to take the plunge into being a fashionista.)

Thank you Mike for keeping us all educated and informed of the latest the fashion world has to offer.
