

We Will Never Forget.....

Last Thursday marked one week since the passing of Mike Darby of Coach's Bar & Grill. After visitations, a Funeral Mass, and celebrations of Life, we came together as his extended family to remember him in story and laughter and tears.

There was many who recalled his friendship, his work ethic, his smile, and his willingness to give whatever it took to make a difference in someone's life. They talked about his starting a bike race called Tour de Hope, and participating in support for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, and Phoenix Family to name but a few.

It was a day filled with so many different events and memories. Each one of us has a story that touches our soul. There were thousands waiting at Mike's visitation to say farewell and express their condolences. Suffice it to say one thing we all have been thinking since the day we heard the news – Mike, we will never forget !!!!!

This was seen resting on a table after breakfast last week. Think it says more than words can convey who Mike was, and what he strived to accomplish every day of his life.
