When many of us pause to think about who Prospectors really are, and strike a vision in our brains, it’s hard not to think of someone maybe small in stature, but huge in pride, spirit, energy, and focus. Someone who places his heart into everything and brings it all to those he shares with every week.

They broke the mold when they made Rick Wolverton of Advanced Interiors. Not another one like him!

Rick exemplifies what being a Prospector is all about. Far more than giving and getting referrals, he has nurtured friendships and associations that have lasted decades. And these relationships make him a better businessperson, better father and grandfather, and better husband. All because when you give you get more back in return. Rick can recently attest to that.

To focus more on his business acumen, he takes his time before and after work just as seriously. Having opportunities to share with other like-minded owners and vendors, he builds great relationships. And these feed back into Advanced Interiors many times over. He finds it essential to follow these leads he shares with many.

He says the support of the group comes from our weekly breakfasts, from his friendships he’s cultivated, from biking for a cause, and even working trade shows and those that help him prepare for them.

We found out how important his family core means to Rick, and with a large family, that means a lot. He is not all business. He LOVES to COOK and EAT! Enough said!! It is great to have such a passion that drives you to succeed.

Advanced Interiors is a full service flooring source touting carpet and wood and laminate flooring (hard to match hardwoods sometimes), along with tile for both your kitchen and bath. He even does countertops in various media. He will take the time to educate and explain what you are looking at, what you might need, and how much it costs. They use great installers they have worked with for years.

He has done exhibits in KC like King Tut, Princess Diana supplying carpet for them. Then there are also back splashes, and kitchen remodels.

Before getting into his current business, he was a teacher / educator, and sports coach. All these have helped him become a better educator in explaining the benefits of his products.

He provides great pricing for his carpeting, most of the time at the same or better pricing than big box stores like Home Depot. Be careful when hearing “Free Pad and Installation” – nothing is free Rick says. Usually build that into their prices. He also carpets stairways, and builds the handrails if needed.

Rick – don’t change a thing and try to set the bar a little higher for each and every one of us! Happy Prospecting!

works so hard to satisfy his clients, and it shows in the referrals he gets.

Friends and Family,

We would like to invite you to attend the 1st Mike Darby Memorial Golf Tournament on Sunday, October 8th at Deer Creek Golf Club. While it is still hard to process that we are coordinating such an event, we would be honored if you would join us to celebrate Mike's life and to support several local organizations that were close to Mike's heart. Given our short runway to organize this event, there are still logistics to be worked out. However, the key details are as follows:

11am Shotgun start on Sunday October 8th at Deer Creek
4 man scramble format
Pre game breakfast and on course food will be provided as well as plenty of cold refreshments
Teams will run $500 per team ($125/golfer)
Hole Sponsors at $1250- includes a 4 some of golf
Friends and Family Sponsorships will be available
A Scholarship to Rockhurst High School will be created in Mike's name
After tournament Awards Party and Chiefs Watch Party at Coach's South immediately following the event

Proceeds from the tournament will support local organizations including Rockhurst High School and Tour de Hope. While we hope to grow this event in upcoming years, the primary focus of this year’s inaugural event is to come together as those who loved Mike to connect, share memories and hopefully a few laughs as we plod our way around the golf course.

Registration Link provided below.
Give Coach Jen a call and let her schedule you to try her Fun, Form, and Variety Early Morning workout. There will be modified exercises for all fitness levels.
